EXPERIENCE

Research Experience

Bioinformatics Lab, CUHK

May-Oct, 2017

- Worked in Prof. Kevin Yip's research group as student research helpers.
- Assisted the project of analyzing certain DNA patterns to measure sequence similarities.
- Optimized the efficiency of counting algorithms and proposed different kernel functions for SVM.
- Analyzed model performance using statistical criteria.
- Participated in weekly meetings to report research progress with Ph.D. students.

Times Series group, Department of Mathematics, CUHK

Feb-May, 2017

- Studied technical analysis under the supervision of Chairman Prof. Raymond Chan.
- Presented important concepts and modern techniques in the analysis of time series.
- Built more than 10 statistical models with computer programs in language R.
- Created a new financial indicator that performed well in predicting short-term fluctuations.

Other Experience

The Chinese University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong

Teaching Assistant.

Sep-Dec, 2016

- Helped teaching first-year undergraduates the course GESH1010.
